Railway Disaster.

A serious accident happened upon the Greenwood Lake Railroad on Tuesday morning. A train, consisting of a locomotive, tender and one passenger coach, which started from Montclair Heights at about 5 o'clock, upon reaching the Hackensack bridge, was hurled into the river. The signals were out, the draw being open for a passing vessel, but the engineer for some reason, did not see the danger until he reached the bridge, too late to stop the train, which was running at nearly full speed. Seeing what was inevitable, he jumped off, but was instantly killed, his head striking the timbers of the bridge. The fireman also jumped, but fortunately cleared the bridge. He struck the water and swam to the shore. The engine sped on, jumped the chasm and descended with a fearful crash against the abutment of the draw and then sank into the water, with the coach on top. The first indication of danger to the passengers was felt in the awful shock of the fall, and, when the situation was realized, the wildest confusion prevailed. As the car filled with water, there was just room for the passengers to keep their heads above water by clinging to the tops of the windows and lamp brackets. A Bloomfield passenger, Mr. Wm. H. Dodd, succeeded in getting out, and being thrown out from the bridge, he set diligently to work to help out a hole in the top of the car to let the imprisoned passengers out, and in a little while they were soon rescued and carried in boats to the shore. The escape from a horrible death was miraculous, and the fact that but few received injuries, and those not necessarily serious, is still more wonderful. Mr. James Woods, of Arlington, had his collar bone broken, and Mr. William Harrison, of Woodside, sustained severe internal injuries. Mr. Joseph R. Rusty, of Bloomsburg, was caught between the stove and one of the seats, and with great difficulty succeeded in extricating himself, after the water, which was up to his waist, had nearly scalded him from the heat of the stove. He was considerably bruised, and with others, taken to the Hudson County Penitentiary, where they were well cared for by the officials. Those who were able to return home were given dry clothes, Messrs. Dodd and Rusty, the latter reported as missing, reaching Bloomfield before noon. Most of the passengers had no idea as to how they had been injured and some of them could give any explanation of the engineer's extraordinary conduct.

As soon as the news reached Jersey City, Superintendent C. W. Douglass went to the bridge with an engine and a car. Fastening the wrecked car to his engine, he drew it out, on the river bank. There was a hole in its side, where it had struck the engine, and one in the roof, through which the passengers had been taken out. The seats were broken and tossed about. Superintendent Douglass said the engineer alone was responsible for the accident. The signals were all right, and if he had been looking he could not have failed to see that a schooner was about to pass through the draw.

Manufacturing in New Jersey.

An article of much interest to all readers, and especially to manufacturers in the city, who, from want of room and through heavy expenses for rent and cartage, find it difficult to successfully carry on their operations. We advise them to come and locate in New Jersey, first reaching the experience of the Singer Company at Elizabethport.

That capital is looking in this direction, is seen in the fact that several large enterprises have, within a few months, been projected. A large brick manufacturing has just been started at Arlington, close to the track of the Greenwood Lake Railroad, by Messrs. Brackett & McDowell, to be used in the manufacture of mining machinery. Messrs. P. Hayden & Sons, extensive Newark manufacturers, are now completing, in Bloomfield, one of the largest and finest buildings in the State, for the manufacture of hardware. There is room for a number more of such industries in our town, and our citizens could not do better than take an active interest in offering inducements for first-class manufacturers to locate here.

Plainfield Times: If Mr. M. C. Dowell, the President of the New Jersey Association, does not get his reward for working up an interest in the commercial development of this State, then no man deserves it.

Constable B. F. Baldwin has the collection of delinquent taxes in the First and Second Side-walk Districts, and Constables Moses Davis in the Third and Fourth Districts.

On Tuesday and Wednesday next, the Annual Convention of the N. J. State Temperance Alliance will be held in Newark. Dr. Cuyler is to speak on Tuesday evening, and Dr. Tiffany on the next.

The November Election.

Poll returns from all parts of New Jersey show that the Republicans have elected thirty-four members of the Assembly and the Democrats twenty-five. The Fourth Assembly District, comprising the First and Fourth Wards of Newark, is in doubt, William (R.) claims a majority of one. The Senate will stand: Republican 12; Democrat 9.

In New York State, A. B. Cornell, the Republican "machine" candidate, was elected Governor, by means of the "Kelly bolt," which rent the Democracy in twain. The Democrats carried their State ticket.

In Massachusetts the "Buller boom" amounted to 105,000 votes for the General, but Mr. Long the Republican candidate, received 10,000 more, and was consequently elected Governor.

In Connecticut the Republicans carried 9 out of 11 Senatorial districts. The Republicans also carry Wisconsin by a heavy majority, while in Pennsylvania, the same party has a majority of nearly 50,000.

The Result.

The Election on Tuesday was entirely free from excitement in Bloomfield, and the vote unusually light—only reaching 666 in all the districts. The reason of the light vote is easily accounted for—lack of interest on the part of citizens of all parties. They failed to see the importance of leaving their business or work, for this occasion. This was especially true of Republicans and Greenbackers. The Democratic vote, being more patriotic (or thirty?) turned out much better, the average party vote being larger than last year. A prominent Greenbacker, who resides in the eastern part of town, explaining the apathy of his followers, said that he could count up dozens who were as sound in their faith and principles as ever, but who declined to vote because their candidates stood no chance of election. "Give us an issue like that at the School Meeting of last June, where there is a chance to do something practically and immediately successful, and every Greenbacker will be on hand to do his duty. We shall hold our annual Club meeting next week, elect new officers, and be ready to take a hand in the next canvass."

The following figures give the result in Bloomfield:

SUGGARAGE.

In Essex county the Democrats elect Mr. Zulick for Surrogate by about 600 over Mr. Piercen, and Mr. Egner for Register by about 1,300 over Mr. Pennington. The city of Newark gives Zulick 1,924 majority and Egner 2,184, against 2,441 for Mayor-elect Fiedler last month, a Republican gain of about 1,500. The townships give Mr. Piercen about 1,350.

Mr. T. W. Lingstroth of Bloomfield, goes to the Assembly from the First District, his majority over Messrs Stockton and Lux being about 300.

Lecture of Rev. Dr. Schaff, this Evening.

We announced last week that the lecture before the students of the German Theological School by the Rev. Dr. Philip Schaff, on the subject of the Recent Evangelical Alliance in Basel, Switzerland, would be held on Wednesday evening of this week. It was found necessary, after the announcement, to change to Friday evening, (to-night). We are glad the sky has cleared, as it will give the people an opportunity to hear a distinguished man and a interesting lecture.

Bloomfield M. E. Church Sunday School will hold its Anniversary next Sunday evening. There will be interesting exercises by the school and an address by Mr. Gashier De Witt, a very popular Sunday School speaker from Newark.

The Parlor entertainment at the residence of Mr. Samuel Carl on last Friday was a success in every way. The vocal and instrumental music was very fine, and the readings by Miss Boyce were excellent. About 100 were present.

"The Papacy and its Relations to Italy" was the subject of a lecture last night, given in Friends' Hall, by Paul V. Flynn of Newark, for the benefit of the Young Men's Catholic Literary Association.

Light vote.

Greenbackers, where were you? Crushing victory for Jim, Joe, Ben and John. Glorious defeat of the Democrats and Greenbacks.

Lonesome by spells at the 3d Polling District. This time Eric went back for the Republican Assembly ticket.

Love's Labor Lost—running a Greenback Labor ticket while the business boom lasts. The Democrats did well and honorably in Caldwell and Montclair, but in Bloomfield the purchasable part of the leadership sold Mr. Stockton out.

There was just enough of the Newark charter election "boom" left to defeat the Republican County ticket, excellent as were the nominations.

A poster was put up at the polls, by some pure politician, warning Republicans against a split ticket issued from "The Record office." Independent Republicans read the placard, but it didn't boom, save as a boom-erger. Your independent Republican asked to see "one of those spurious tickets," and straightway voted in preference to the genuine.

There seems to have been a Republican deluge on Tuesday, except in Essex County, where it appears to have been a Democratic waterpout which carried Messrs. Zulick and Egner quite into the Court House. Water fall, or Waterloo was there my countrymen!

An entertainment will be given next Wednesday evening to the Watseasing M. E. Church, consisting of readings by Prof. G. H. Makren, and singing by a male quartet and chorus. Prof. Makren is the instructor in elocution at the Hackettstown Collegiate Institute, and comes highly recommended as an able artist. Tickets 25 cents.

All the planets are now starting it nightly, and Mr. Venus gives an occasional matinee, no opera-glass required.

A fall of beautiful snow on Thursday sent the autumn leaves.

The Store men are having a business boom of it.

An enterprising and scholarly store-keeper on Bloomfield avenue, announces "No book west & Soudige."

Joseph A. Blair, who was acquitted of the charge of murdering his coachman, moved from Montclair to Brooklyn on Wednesday afternoon, taking his household goods with him. He had lately received threatening letters with skulls and cross bones roughly sketched on them.

A painful accident happened to Mr. Fred. Lenz, in the Elizabeth Herald establishment, near Montclair, on Saturday, when he was engaged in operating a large steam paper cutter when his right hand was caught in the gearing and drawn in and lacerated fearfully, causing the machine to come to a stop, and it had to be turned back before it could be released.

The man whose body was found on Ward street, near Montclair, on Saturday, was A. B. Hubbard, of Montclair, a member of the firm of E. G. Hubbard & Son, of Water street, New York. He was twenty-five years old, and accidentally shot himself with his own fowling piece.
